"Freemasonry is an institution that promotes moral and upright living. It promotes harmony, brotherhood, certainly relief, and truth. All of these things are needed in our society for us to live free and peacefully. And I think if more people understood that Freemasonry focuses on these virtues and can be applied to the betterment of people who are not members, they will come to us."

WISDOM

FROM THE AST

JERRY DONATHAN, PM

Worshipful Master

Happy New Year Brethren!

It looks like we're going to hit the ground running again this year with degree work as far as the eye can see. Brethren, there is a new strain of COVID going around, so please stay safe.

See you all in Lodge and again Happy New Year!

Brotherly,
Worshipful Master Jerry Donathan, PM

STRENGTH

FROM THE EST

ADELBERT "AL" CAGUNGAO

Senior Warden

Dear Brethren,

The pandemic has almost decimated our lodge into distinction. We cannot even have the number needed for a stated meeting. The brethren from the 826th Masonic District came to our rescue. They helped to fill the much-needed positions. We will be forever grateful for the support they gave us.

Three years later, we have a full line up for our 135th installation of elected and appointed officers for the ensuing masonic year. Thanks for the leadership and hard work of our Past Masters. They trained and shared to us their knowledge and mastery of the craft.

As we move forward to masonic year 2024 with hopes to continue our growth as a lodge, I encouraged the brethren to attend much needed Masonic Leadership Retreats to get hands-on, practical advice on the issues facing lodges today. To gain fresh ideas, discover new tools, and connect with other lodge officers to help them gain deeper understanding of their office. So that they can successfully and effectively perform their sworn duties.

I would like to pay the wages that I know about, so:

Thanks to Worshipful elect and Past Master Jerry Donathan for continuing to lead the Lodge.

Thanks to Past Master Chuck Markel & Past Master Harold Whitford for continuing to impart their knowledge and mastery of the rituals to upcoming officers.

Thanks to Past Master Marty Guswa for leading the lodge during the pandemic.

And last, thanks to the brethren who have stepped up to fill up the voids in the line up of officers.

Fraternally,

Bro Adelbert Cagungao, Sr Warden

BEAUTY

FROM THE SOUTH

SAMMY GILLO

Junior Warden

My fellow brethren, the sun sets again on another Masonic year.

Many good men have sat in the MVL 289 chair, and many more have chosen to carry their duties to the Temple. There is a saying “A leader with no followers is just a man taking a walk”, this holds true in all societies, especially of ours.

Without the support of the Members, a Master is walking alone in a pathless field with little direction, but with the support of the Lodge brothers, he can create a pathway that will lead to great accomplishments, and even greater rewards for the Fraternity. Jerry Donathan, Master elect for 2024, will soon be asking us all to walk with him as he leads us into the new Masonic year of 2024.

There was a time, a few years back, when things were slender, we couldn’t even fill the chairs or hold degrees without assistance from the other lodges within 826th district. We are now blessed with much new blood, Bro Al Cagungao, myself, and other elected and appointed officers show much enthusiasm about studying the higher chairs, and are exactly what our Lodge needs to remain to grow. We will be initiating, passing, and raising many new Brothers this Masonic year.

I encourage every member to attend all the degrees. Let him see that Brotherly Love is not just articulated by the few who choose to lead, or in the secrecy of charity, but by the many members that make up the true meaning of the Lodge of MVL 289!!!!

Brotherly,
Bro Sammy Gillo, Jr Warden

INSIGHTS FROM A PAST MASTER

HAROLD WHITFORD

*Past Master - Perris #411 1987, 1994,
2004, 2005, MVL #289 2011*

2024, Can you believe it? A corp of 13 officers with only ONE P.M. And believe me, Worshi Jerry, we're glad you're there to guide the ship (Yonder?). I can see that our younger officers and even the mid-life Bros. have some new ideas and some new ways to portray Freemasonry to an ever expanding and ever changing version of our gentle craft. We realized that we can maintain the dignity of the 'old school' with Tuxedos and strict ritual that has made us the oldest 'Fraternal organization in the world'. And we can 'let down our Hair' a little with things like our 'funny T shirts' and the 3 and ½ degree.

I will have more to contribute to this section when I have family matters settled. Thanks to the Brothers (3rd degree proficient) who are stepping up to coach candidates. I will remain available to examine and limited coaching.

Good news from the Masonic Homes of California:

Most of our membership know a little bit about or at least have heard some of the requirements, waiting times, benefits, and other information about our beautiful homes. One located on 305 acres just 35 miles east of San Francisco in Union City and the other on 33 acres in So-Cal at Covina. California Masons dedicated the 1st home in Union City to create shelter for Widows and Children Left destitute and alone. Since then we have expanded into a state wide network of critical resources and services, including the home at Covina and the MOS (Masonic Outreach Service) Program. Our pledge is 'Service and Care Based on Masonic Values' and include:

Independent Living, In-home care and assisted living, Skilled nursing, Memory care, and Hospice.

YES, Brothers! This is what your dues & donations have created. The finest care facilities located ANYWHERE!

Now, the good news I mentioned: Whereas before; Eligibility had been limited to Master Masons 60+ of more than 5 years membership as a California Mason.

NOW, eligibility includes Parents & Parents-in-law of California Masons, and Master Masons with less than 5 years membership in a California lodge.

I can get you printed information about the Homes or you can call 888-466-3642, Back side of your dues card.

I'm in your corner,

H

BROTHER'S CORNER

THE IMPORTANCE OF RITUAL

Bro Christian Bustilleon

Greetings from Texas, my Brethren!

It is without saying that I wish I could be there with you all during our gatherings. Congratulations to our newly appointed officers! It is a new year, and therefore a continuation of our Masonic journey. At this time, I would like to talk about the importance of our ritual.

It is easy to fall into the trap of prioritizing numbers over quality, but the true value of Freemasonry lies in the depth and richness of its teachings, which are inextricably linked to the ritualistic practices. The ceremonies, lectures, and symbols are not mere formalities; they serve as powerful tools for introspection, learning, and personal growth. Without proper ritual, Masonry loses its heart and soul. The teachings remain mere words, devoid of the transformative power embedded within the ceremonies.

We all remember the significance of our initiation experience. The anxieties, questions, and sense of wonder that mark that first night set the stage for our lifelong journey of exploration and discovery. It's a reminder to us that the journey is just as important as the destination. Reminiscing about our initiation night is a powerful reminder of the transformative journey each Mason embarks on.

For some of us, including myself, it is very challenging to memorize and perform; however, I encourage each and everyone of us to do our best because learning the degrees and obligations is not just about rote memorization. It is a process of internalizing the core principles of Freemasonry and developing a deeper understanding of its symbolism. The struggle of memorization teaches us perseverance, discipline, and the profound impact of focused effort.

Hearing the lectures is also not enough. Truly engaging with the teachings requires active listening and a willingness to discover new perspectives with each repetition. Those who passively listen may miss out on the rich tapestry of lessons woven into the fabric of Freemasonry. Those who actively listen and engage will reap the benefits of these evolving lessons, while those who tune out will miss out on the wealth of wisdom Masonry offers.

Giving a perfect lecture is great, but we should not be discouraged when we make mistakes. Both the lecturer and the listener can learn valuable lessons from imperfect performances. The experience of delivering a lecture, the stumbles and the triumphs, all teach invaluable lessons about humility, empathy, and overcoming imperfection. These lessons extend beyond the lodge room, reminding us to be more forgiving and understanding in our daily lives.

While it is alright to make mistakes during our rituals, we should always strive for perfection. We all begin as rough ashlar but our goal should be to become perfect ashlar. Having a great ritual turns the night into a memorable one for you, the candidate, and all the brethren in the lodge room.

To any Brothers who would like to share stories or narratives, please send an email to the Trestleboard Editor.

MASONIC EDUCATION

by Bro Bruce Flowers

As always, each month I will be scanning various sources for Masonic Education topics of interest. I usually have 2 or 3 topics ready at any one time, but feel free to pass along any suggestions. This month's item is an article I found that examines the meaning and application of "Equal Regularity."

EQUAL REGULARITY

by RW Alfonso Serrano

Aurora Grata-Day Star Lodge No. 647, New York

I have looked up these words in a dictionary and I have found the following meanings:

Equal: Having the same capacity, quantity, effect, measure, or value as another

Regularity: Conforming to a fixed procedure, principle or discipline.

We also find these words impressed upon our minds in the explanation of the Great Light in Masonry shortly after being obligated in the Entered Apprentice Degree. The Worshipful Master explains to us the meaning of the three lesser lights as follows; "The three lesser lights are the Sun, Moon and Master of the Lodge and as the Sun rules the day and the Moon governs the night so should the Worshipful Master with equal regularity rule and Govern the Lodge".

Since Freemasonry is best explained as a beautiful system of morality expressed by symbols and veiled in allegory we must search for ourselves the lesson that can be best gained from the term equal regularity. I have always tried to adapt lessons taught within the Degrees of Masonry into my own personal life. Many of them are extremely difficult. The question "What came you here to do?" is a good example to which we respond, "To learn to subdue my passions and improve myself in Masonry." This in itself has to be the hardest trial in Masonry and I struggle with this every day. Yet, because of the Light that I have received in Masonry I try to restrain myself from overreacting and letting my passions get the best of me. But as hard as I try I fail because I am human yet to my consolation every day I fail a little less.

In the Old Testament of the King James Bible we find in Genesis chapter 1 verses 16 through 18 the following, "And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also. And God set them in the firmament of heaven to give light upon the earth. And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from darkness: and God saw that it was good."

Symbolically we can look at the Sun and the Moon as the active and passive forces in nature, which must be in balance in order for nature to exist. We can also observe them as emblems of the Spiritual and the Physical worlds. The Square and Compasses can also interpreted in this manner, as well as the Seal of Solomon with its intertwined white and black triangles showing the connection between God and Man or the Spiritual World and that of Matter. Even the lambskin apron can be interpreted as an emblem of the relationship between the spiritual and the physical world. The triangular flap representing the Spiritual world is separated from the square apron representing the material world because the flap is turned up "to prevent daubing with untempered mortar" which we can interpret as to prevent your spiritual being from being soiled by the sins of the material world. As you progress through the three degrees which, represent the three components of man, the physical, mental and the spiritual, as well as youth, manhood and old age.

We find that as man matures and finds his balance with the components that make up his being the triangular flap becomes one with the square apron exemplifying the lesson of co-existence on two planes on being. Then how do we then adapt the instruction “As the Sun rules the day and the Moon governs the night so should the Worshipful Master with equal regularity rule and govern the Lodge.” I interpret it as follows, If we take the lesson and reduce it from the term lodge [plural] to ourselves [singular] be not each of us the Worshipful Masters of our bodies, which can be considered our Temple. That Temple that houses that eternal spirit of which will survive the grave and which never dies.

With this in mind we must consider that as Masters of our own bodies we must rule with equal regularity over our involvement within the Material as well as the Spiritual worlds in which we move. How do we as Men rule and govern over our physical presence as well as our spiritual being? This question is rather difficult to answer and I believe, as no two humans are alike so the answer to this question will not be for any two persons the same. Therefore the term equal regularity can be viewed as a personal quest to find the balance in your life that will promote equal regularity and therefore harmony within yourselves. What more beautiful goal can any human have than to be at peace with himself, his family and his fellow man?

In the New Testament a Prophet was asked a question in order to trick him and prove him an enemy of the government. “And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor. And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly. Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar, or no? But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me? Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said Caesar’s. And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar’s, and unto God the things which be God’s. And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marveled at his answer, and held their peace.”

Therefore, give unto the material world that which belongs to the material world and give unto the spiritual world that which belongs to God. In the hopes of achieving equal regularity, and therefore be better enabled to help your fellow man and contribute to the relief of distressed worthy Master Mason their widows and orphans.

The Volume of Sacred Law which you always find on the Altars of Freemasonry speaks of Faith, (representing the mental) Hope, (representing the physical) and Charity, (representing the spiritual). The greatest of these is Charity (the spiritual being of man), for Faith (the mental outlook of man) may be lost in sight, Hope (the physical or material plane we live in) often ends in fruition or completion but Charity or our spiritual self will transcend death. For it is nothing less than the love of God operating in the hearts of men which will endure beyond the grave and into the boundless realms of eternity.
